in 1892 an explorer fought in the oceanic blue of thick raw hide a chance at which to run away to hide the nation would quiver grow thirst as a wanderer never a follower lip service above shadows in the shining peak take so long to spring a leak feathers addressed to sing a song help you as you get along out of mercy you portrayed its plight as is a stranger in the night very good contribution in sincere reunion
