I do not write from the top ...
And i do not write either lying in a bed of clouds ...
I write from here from the asphalt,
of the clay, the bush,
what touches my heart

It can be a pain
It can be a love
It can be an outrage ...

It could be a daydream ...
Why not?
Everything is allowed.

I dream,
but I never get deceived,
because my reality does not allow it.
