It's not your fault
if I'm loving you ...
What I've been looking for,
I found it.

You say you do not love me,
but you surrender to me
with so much ardor ...

If, without loving me it is so,
imagine loving me...
I beg you, please,
do not leave me.

Use me, abuse me,
do with me what you want.
I'm aware.
Everything that I want
is to have you, woman.

I did not ask for your love ...
So abuse mine,
without shame.
If it's I who am loving you,
i give myself as a gift:
you can abuse what is yours.
