The cat looks at me,
while i closing the gate
from the yard...

The night is dark,
despite the stars
which shine.

I close the gate ...
The cat looks at me
and thinks:
will be that is a thief?

I look at the cat
and I think:
be that the cat think?

So is formed the painting:
gate closed,
the cat is sitting there
and I coming into the house
for to sleep.
