Run for me ...
Maybe I still do not know
what is love;
had you not deciphered
this figure, but ...
Run for me.

Run to me
with all the uncertainty
which way to take
in a labyrinth;
with all the insecurity
of those who grope in the dark.

Run to me,
that I'll be running to you too,
with the same doubts.
Who knows, together
we can solve
this equation?
